WELCOME TO

the First HGS/EAGE Conference on Latin America themed “South American Petroleum Plays for Future Decades of the Third Millennium”

We are pleased to welcome you to the 1st HGS/EAGE meeting on Latin America that will take place in Houston, USA from 19–20 November 2019. We are excited to offer you this interesting event in Houston. It will bring together the knowledge of two well known societies, namely HGS and EAGE, the European Association of Geoscientists and Engineers.

While the petroleum industry is still experiencing the biggest economic downturn seen for decades, our industry-based colleagues and academics continue to bring new tools, influence and understanding to exploration and production activities. The world needs energy and therefore it needs you to participate in events like this. The downturn also offers opportunities especially in the field of new technologies and efficiency.

We strongly believe that the joint HGS/EAGE 2019 event will bring together a strong, successful conference focused on Latin America and widely attended by academic and industry participants. We are preparing a program with broad appeal, scientific focus, and networking opportunities. We are expecting 300 participants from the US, Europe, and Latin America with oral and poster presentations. In addition, an exhibition is present to facilitate knowledge transfer and business among the Geoscience community.

On behalf of the committee, we hope to see you in Houston!

Cheryl Desforges, Mariela Araujo Fresky, and Steven Getz
Conference chairs

EAGE

The European Association of Geoscientists and Engineers (EAGE) is a global professional, non-profit association for geoscientists and engineers with 19,000 members worldwide. The objective is to collect and distribute technical knowledge. EAGE organizes events and publishes a monthly magazine for its members and 5 scientific journals. All members of EAGE are professionally involved in (or studying) geophysics, petroleum exploration, geology, reservoir engineering, mining, and mineral exploration, civil engineering, tunneling and environmental matters. EAGE's Head Office is located in the Netherlands with regional offices in Moscow, Dubai, Kuala Lumpur, and Bogota.

HGS

The Houston Geological Society is a professional society for petroleum, energy, and environmental geoscientists. The HGS supports continuing education, networking, outreach to students, student scholarships and young professional activities, such as neoGeos. HGS organizes multiple monthly events and publishes a monthly magazine for its members. This monthly magazine is also published in the AAPG Datapages. HGS is comprised mainly of petroleum geologists (but some are mining and environmental geologists.) Our associated members (who are not degreed geologists) include: geophysicists, petrophysicists, engineers (petroleum and civil) as well as mineral explorationists and environmentalists. Headquarters for the HGS is in Houston, Texas.
